

Please do not allow the use of cell phones on airborne aircraft. There is ample evidence that many cell phone users have little or no regard for those around them. In airports, shopping malls, grocery stores, subways and restaurants the public is assaulted by endless one-way, often loud, chatter. As offensive as this often is at least there is some hope of escape. On a plane there is none. Thank you.